Information Sheet

Who can attend? Students currently in grades 6 through 12 can attend. Students DO NOT need to regularly attend Emmaus in order to attend the Lock-in.

When is it? Friday, January 24th at 7PM until Saturday, January 25th at 7AM. It IS NOT required that students attend the entire event. Students may leave at any time. However, students will only be allowed to leave the event with their parent(s) unless otherwise specified by a parent/guardian (see above).

Where is it? The event will happen at Emmaus Church (712 N. Linden St. Northfield).

Is there a cost? No. There is NO COST for this event.

Food? Snacks and beverages will be provided. We will have pizza for the students later in the night. And breakfast will be provided at around 5:30am.

Will there be adult supervision? You betcha! There will be adult supervision for the entire duration of the event. It is the policy of Emmaus Youth Ministry that youth events have at least one adult chaperone for every eight students in attendance.

What will students be doing? There are a variety of games and activities that students will be a part of. We will also provide snacks, pizza (night), and breakfast (morning) for students. There will also be a time of Bible teaching together that students are required to attend.

Do students HAVE to stay up all night long? No. There will be rooms designated for sleeping (one for girls, and one for boys) if students wish to sleep.

What should my student bring, and what should they NOT bring? Students may want to bring a sleeping bag and pillow if they plan to sleep. They should not bring any gaming or electronic devices other than their cellphone.

Who do I contact if I have questions or concerns? Please contact Pastor of Student and Family Ministries Tim Drake by phone (518-569-8297) or by email (tdrake@emmauschurch.org).

PLEASE GO OVER THE FOLLOWING EVENT RULES WITH YOUR STUDENT:

- All youth must turn in a completed and signed permission form in order to attend.
- Unless other arrangements are specified on the permission slip, each student is expected to stay the entire night, and will only be released to their parent or guardian.
- Lock-in participants will not be allowed to go outside of church or venue without adult supervision.
- NO personal video games or electronic devices are allowed. Cell phones are allowed but Emmaus is not responsible for lost or stolen objects.
- Any possessions or bags must be surrendered at entrance to the lock-in venue. Special medication or required items should be indicated on the parent permission form.
- No illegal drugs, alcohol, dangerous materials, or firearms.
- Same sex sleeping quarters will be provided. Lights out/quiet hours will be observed in these areas.
- It is expected that all lock-in participants (youth and adults) will participate in the programming. Adequate free time will be scheduled for fellowship and socializing.
- Be considerate and respectful of other participants, leaders and the meeting space.
- Clean up after yourself.
- Violation of these expectations will result in a parent phone call for their student to be picked up.
